

rights of the natural homemaker. Natural resources whose conservation is necessary for the national welfare should be owned or controlled by the nation.

Good Roads.

We recognize the vital importance of good roads and we pledge our party to foster their extension in every proper way and we favor the early construction of national highways. We also favor the extension of the rural free delivery service.

Alaska.

The coal and other natural resources of Alaska should be opened to development at once. They are owned by the people of the United States and are safe from monopoly, waste or destruction only while so owned. We demand that they shall neither be sold nor given away except under the homestead law, but while held in government ownership shall be opened to use promptly upon liberal terms requiring immediate development.

Thus the benefit of cheap fuel will accrue to the government of the United States and the people of Alaska and the Pacific coast; the settlement of extensive agricultural lands will be hastened; the extermination of the salmon will be prevented; and the just and wise development of Alaskan resources will take the place of private extortion or monopoly. We demand also that extortion or monopoly in transportation shall be prevented by the prompt acquisition, construction or improvement by the government of such railroads, harbor or other facilities for transportation as the welfare of the people demands.

We promise the people of the territory of Alaska the same measure of local self-government that was given to other American territories, and that federal officials appointed there shall be qualified by previous bona fide residence in the territory.

Waterways.

The rivers of the United States are the natural arteries of this continent. We demand that they shall be opened to traffic as an indispensable part of a great nation-wide system of transportation in which the Panama canal will be the central line, thus enabling the whole interior of the United States to share with the Atlantic and Pacific seaboard in the benefit derived from the canal. It is the national obligation to develop our rivers, and especially the Mississippi and its tributaries, without delay, under a comprehensive general plan covering each river system from its source to its mouth, designed to secure its highest usefulness for navigation, irrigation, domestic supply and the prevention of floods.

We pledge our party to the immediate preparation of such a plan which should be made and carried out in close and friendly co-operation between the nation, the states, and the cities affected. Under such a plan, the destructive floods which have been the scourge of the Mississippi and other streams which represent a great and needless loss to the nation, would be controlled by forest conservation and water storage below, and sufficient to support millions of people who are reclaimed from the deserts and the swamps, water power enough to transform the industrial standings of whole states would be developed, adequate water terminals would be provided, transportation by river would revive and the railroads would be compelled to co-operate with the waterways in co-operation with the various states, at the lowest cost to the people.

The Panama canal, built and paid for by the American people must be used for their benefit. We demand that the canal shall be so operated as to break the transportation monopoly now held and controlled by transcontinental railroads. Ships owned or controlled by transcontinental railroads must not be allowed to use the canal, and American ships shall pay no tolls. The Progressive party shall favor legislation having for its aim the development of friendship and commerce between the United States and Latin American nations.

Tariff.

We believe in a protective tariff which shall equalize conditions of competition between the United States and foreign countries, both for the farmer and the manufacturer and which shall maintain for labor an adequate standard of living.

Primarily the benefit of any tariff should be disclosed in the pay envelope of the laborer. We declare that no industry or occupation which is unfair to labor or which is operating in violation of federal law, we believe that the presumption is always in favor of the consuming public.

We demand tariff revision because the present tariff is unjust to the people of the United States. Fair dealing toward the people requires an immediate downward revision of these schedules wherein duties are shown to be unjust or excessive.

We pledge ourselves to the establishment of a non-partisan scientific tariff commission reporting both to the president and to either branches of congress, which shall report first the cost of production, efficiency of labor, capitalization, industrial organization and efficiency, and the work of competitive position of the industry abroad of industries seeking protection from congress; second, as to the revenue producing power of the tariff and its relation to the resources of government; and, third, as to the effect of the tariff on the prices, operations of middlemen and on the purchasing power of the consumer.

We believe that this commission should have plenary powers to elicit information and to prescribe a uniform system of accounting for the work of the commission should not prevent the immediate adoption of acts reducing the schedules generally recognized as excessive.

We condemn the Payne-Aldrich bill as unjust to the people. The Republican organization is in the hands of those who have broken, and cannot again be trusted to keep the promise of necessary downward revision.

The Democratic party is committed to the destruction of the protective system through a tariff for revenue only, a policy which would inevitably produce widespread industrial and commercial disaster. We demand the immediate repeal of the Canadian reciprocity act.

Inheritance and Income Tax. We believe in a graduated inheritance tax as a national means of equalizing the obligation of holders of property to government and we hereby pledge our party to enact such a federal law, as will tax large inheritances, returning to the states an equitable percentage of all amounts collected. We favor the ratification of the pending amendments to the constitution giving the government power to levy an income tax.

Peace and National Defense.

The Progressive party develops the survival in our civilization of the barbaric system of warfare among nations, with its enormous waste of resources even in time of peace and the consequent impoverishment of the life of the toiling masses. We pledge the party to judicial and other peaceful means of settling international differences.

We favor an international agreement for the limitation of naval forces. Pending such an agreement, and as the best means of preserving peace, we pledge ourselves to maintain for the present the policy of building two battleships a year.

Treaty Rights.

We pledge our party to protect the rights of American citizenship at home and abroad. No treaty should receive the sanction of our government which discriminates between American citizens because of birthplace, race or religion, or that does not recognize the absolute right of expatriation.

Through the establishment of industrial standards we propose to secure to the able-bodied immigrants and to his able native fellow workers a larger share of American opportunity.

We denounce the fatal policy of indifference and neglect which has left the enormous immigration population to become the prey of chance and cupidity. We favor governmental action to encourage the distribution of immigrants away from the congested cities, to supervise rigidly all private agencies dealing with them and to promote their assimilation, education and advancement.

Pensions.

We pledge our service to a wise and just policy of pensioning American soldiers and the widows and children by the federal government, and we approve the policy of the southern states in granting pensions to the ex-confederate soldiers and sailors and their widows and children.

Civil Service.

We condemn the violation of the civil service law by the president, including the correction and assessment of subordinates, and the use of the law to punish such violations after a finding of guilty by his own commission, his distribution of patronage among subordinates, while withholding it from those who refuse support of administration members, his withdrawal of nominations from the senate until political support for himself was secured, and his appointments to office to reward those who voted for his re-nomination. To eradicate these abuses we demand not only the enforcement of the civil service act in letter and spirit, but also legislation which will bring under the competitive system postmasters, collectors, marshals, and all other non-political officers, as well as the enactment of a civil service law, and we also insist upon continuous service during good behavior and efficiency.

Business Organization.

We pledge our party to readjustment of the business methods of the national government and a proper coordination of the federal bureaus which will increase the economy and efficiency of the government service, prevent duplications and secure better results to the taxpayers for every dollar expended.

Supervision of Investment.

The people of the United States are swindled out of many millions of dollars every year through worthless investments. The plain people, the wage earners and the men and women with small savings, have no way of knowing the merit of concerns sending out highly colored prospectuses offering stock for sale, prospectuses that make big returns seem certain and fortunes easily within grasp. We hold it to be the duty of the government to protect its people from this kind of piracy. We therefore demand wise, careful, thoughtful legislation that will give us such governmental supervision over this matter as will furnish to the people of the United States this much-needed protection, and we pledge ourselves thereto.

Conclusion.

On these principles and on the recognized desirability of uniting the progressive forces of the nation into an organization which shall unequivocally represent the progressive spirit and policy, we appeal for the support of all American citizens without regard to previous political affiliations.

ANNOYED BY YOUNG BOYS

Gus Wanos, an employee of the Orpheum Candy kitchen, was arrested yesterday afternoon for fighting with two small boys in front of the Orpheum theater. He was charged with disturbing the peace.

He pleaded guilty to the charge this morning, but stated that he was annoyed by the boys and his patience could not endure their tauntings. To substantiate his statements, Charley Lippincott testified that there always was a crowd of boys hanging around the store and that their mischief was sometimes hard to bear.

Judge Reeder reminded the defendant that there was always recourse in law for such troubles, and that he had no right to take the law into his own hands and punish the boys. The judge delayed passing sentence until he can talk to the boys, who are in the custody of the juvenile authorities.

Richard Connolly, charged with using obscene language toward O. J. Gowans, was found guilty by Judge Reeder in police court this morning, but his sentence was suspended.

According to Gutke, Connolly swore at him in the Diamond saloon. Connolly denied that he had sworn at Gutke, stating that he only conversed with Gutke for a few minutes on subjects relating to the Montello Salt company.

Lectured—Superintendent E. G. Gowans of the Industrial School returned from Bear River City today.

He delivered a lecture to the people of Ogden yesterday evening on questions relating to the education of young men and women.

WHITE GIRL MURDERER TO TESTIFY HANGS SELF

Jack Johnson Will Be Young Farmer Shoots Vice President Under Care of Physicians—Fear Expressed.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—Lucile Cameron and her mother, Mrs. Cameron Falconet of Minneapolis, were brought from Rockford, Ill., where the girl has been held as a future witness, to be present when the federal grand jury today took up again its investigation into the relations between the girl and Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist.

Mrs. Falconet said her daughter had given over entirely her former recollections to "stick to Johnson," and now was convinced she would return to her mother and aid in prosecuting the pugilist. If prosecution was ordered by the federal government.

SATURDAY'S BALL GAMES

Minneapolis, Oct. 26.—Minnesota met Iowa today and the Gophers walked over and bucked the Hawkeyes, making gains at will. When the professional game was completed at the end of the final quarter, the score stood Minnesota 56, Iowa 7, the Hawkeyes scoring on split plays and double passes which the Minnesota substitutes could not fathom.

With the Iowa record against Chicago last Saturday back of them, and with the chances seemingly good of lifting the stigma of eight years of defeat, the final outcome of the game was a surprise to Minnesota followers. From the first, however, the Gophers had the game in their own hands. McMahon, Erdahl and Tolleson, making "slides" almost at will on the "shift" and using the forward pass successfully for a ground gainer and to open up the defense. It was one of these, from Tolleson to McMahon, that netted Minnesota its second touchdown.

Yale Is Held Down.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 26.—Showing unexpected aggressiveness in offensive work and a consistently tight defense, Washington and Jefferson held Yale to a 13 to 3 score. In the third period, when Patterson made a field goal from Yale's forty-yard line, the visitors clearly outplayed the home team. Yale had the ball on the visitors' seven-yard line in the first period, but lost it on downs. In the second period, by steady line plunges, Yale scored two touchdowns, but only one goal was kicked.

Baker Wins Game.

Princeton, Oct. 26.—Princeton surprised the most optimistic of her followers by defeating Dartmouth today, 22 to 7.

Princeton's victory was purely a result of "outfitting" her opponents. Dartmouth assumed the attack and carried the ball well into Princeton's territory on a series of line plunges and a variety of trick plays which completely baffled the Princeton players. As the game progressed, however, the home eleven seemed to get strong and showed remarkable speed both in offense and defense, and held the visitors well in check in the second half.

Dartmouth rushed the ball almost as much as Princeton, but the Tigers always strengthened when their goal line was in danger and several times recovered fumbles by Dartmouth, which always managed to come at the most inopportune time for the Harvard overlanders.

Harvard Defeats Browns. Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 26.—Many brilliant runs much fine punting, a few successful forward passes out of numerous tries, an unusual number of penalties, mostly against the crimson, and ineffectual line plunging by both teams, marked Harvard's victory over Brown today by 30 to 10.

The last period of the game in twilight, and it was then that Crowther, the Brown quarterback, ran half the length of the field for Brown's only touchdown. Previously Captain Ashbaugh of Brown had kicked a goal from placement from the forty-yard line.

Pennsylvania Is Beaten.

Philadelphia, Oct. 26.—Pennsylvania had another sad day on the football field here this afternoon, meeting her third defeat of the season at the hands of Lafayette by the score of 7 to 3. The Quaker eleven played poor football, while the up-state team put up a magnificent game, both on attack and defense.

Some Other Scores.

Carlisle 34, Georgetown 20.
Washington 55, Ottawa 0.
Nebraska 41, Adrian (Mich.) college 0.
Swarthmore 40, Johns Hopkins 6.
Barbarian 6, Stanford university 0.
University of Colorado 37, University of Wyoming 0.
Australians 16, University of California 0.
Washington 22, Idaho 0.

At Logan, Utah—Utah Agricultural college 19, University of Montana 19.
Washington 24, Idaho 0.

Seattle, Oct. 26.—The University of Washington had an easy time in the opening football game of the intercollegiate season on Denny field today, winning 24 to 0. Idaho was outclassed in every department.

Kansas University Wins. Lawrence, Kan., Oct. 26.—In a bitterly fought game the Kansas university football team defeated the Kansas Agricultural college on McCook field this afternoon, 19 to 6. Fumbles lost for the visitors.

Gov. Johnson Is Stumping Maine. Portland, Me., Oct. 28.—Governor Johnson, in a speech at Biddeford today, denounced the renomination of President Taft at Chicago as having been secured by theft and fraud.

The national committee, he explained, nominated the candidate of a minority of the Republican party, and a mighty small minority at that. The national committee assassinated the old Republican party and they did ore—they assassinated their every candidate as well he added.

Speaking of the Wilson Governor Johnson said that the Democratic leader's arguments on the tariff and non-solution.

SHERMAN IS IN BAD SHAPE

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 26.—It was reported from the residence of Vice President Sherman this afternoon that his condition remains such as to cause apprehension, and that he does not respond as readily as heretofore to the remedies that are being given him.

When young Rohrer, who lived just opposite Ott's home, demanded to see Mrs. Rohrer, Ott answered the door, but refused the young man admittance. Rohrer went home, returned with a shotgun and shot and killed Ott. Mrs. Ott and his wife came out of the door, Rohrer shot them also, both shots entering the breast and killing them.

The young husband next entered the house in search of his wife, but she had heard the shots and had taken her baby and hidden in a cupboard, where she remained until Rohrer left. The only eye-witness to the triple shooting was the 4-year-old adopted son of Ott, who was at the milk shed. When the shooting started, the family had been killed, he went upstairs and hid in bed, where he was found by a physician.

DEEP MYSTERY IS UNSOLVED BY OFFICER

Not knowing whether he is the victim of a practical joke or whether there is a deep mystery to be solved, W. H. Bryan, deputy warden of the Rawlins penitentiary, left for Wyoming yesterday after a 24-hour investigation.

According to Bryan, a telegram was received at the Rawlins prison stating that a guard from that institution had caught two of the desperate criminals who escaped from there last week and that transportation should be sent to Ogden. The telegram stated that the men had been captured at Larson and as the guard who is supposed to have written the message has captured other escaped prisoners the message was thought to be authentic and transportation for three men was sent to the ticket office of the Union Pacific.

When the guard did not return to the prison with the convicts the authorities became alarmed and sent Deputy Vidler to investigate. When he arrived in Ogden he found the transportation had not been asked for and no trace of the guard or his prisoners could be found. Thinking that perhaps the man had been overpowered in some rooming house, a canvass was made of the hotels in the city, but no trace of the men could be found. Inquiries addressed to the sheriff of Davis county revealed the fact that the authorities there knew nothing of an arrest at Larson.

Deputy Bryan left last night, thoroughly puzzled over the telegram and its request and has asked the local authorities to look into the matter.

APPLE CIDER AT RIVERDALE RALLY

Spellbinders for Tuesday night for the Democrats are James H. Moyle of Salt Lake, who will speak at Plain City, and C. A. Boyd at Roy. Both speakers will be accompanied by candidates on the county ticket.

At Eden and Huntsville tomorrow night Governor Spry will be the principal speaker and at Liberty Thomas McKay, candidate for recorder on the Republican ticket and George Halverson and C. R. Hollingsworth will instruct the people regarding political questions.

The speakers for the Progressives tomorrow night at Roy will be B. A. Critchlow, candidate for clerk, I. C. Canfield, candidate for sheriff, and M. H. Thomas, candidate for the state legislature. The same evening at Starvation Judge John E. Bagley and Joseph Ririe will speak and the Warren people will be addressed by Judge A. W. Agee and Thomas H. Davis.

At Pleasant View Tuesday evening J. J. Cannon of Salt Lake will be the Progressive speaker.

Wednesday night Judge Barclay and Joseph Ririe will speak at Roy and at Kanabasis B. A. Critchlow and C. Canfield will be heard. R. S. Farnsworth will speak at Farr West that night and G. J. S. Abels and D. C. Walker will speak to the people of Riverdale Thursday. At Riverdale C. J. Adams will entertain the Bull Moose crowd from all over the Sand Ridge country. Jonathan apple cider will be served with coffee and sandwiches. A genuine Progressive feast will be had. It is anticipated that there will be a large gathering at Mr. Adams' home.

Secretary Larson of Republican headquarters states that there are 9,800 citizens of Ogden who are entitled to vote and it is expected that fully 8,000 of them will avail themselves of the opportunity.

RECEPTION

The annual reception to be given by the First Congregational church will be held in the church parlors Friday evening next, when a cordial welcome to all members, friends and the public generally will be extended. A pleasant social evening with appropriate musical numbers and the serving of refreshments has been planned.

Uncle Joe's Reply. Some members of the house heard a few days ago the strangest combination of sacred and profane language which had ever been uttered on that floor. During a debate Uncle Joe Cannon went after A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania, and handled him without gloves. Cannon is a Quaker and so is Palmer. When conversing privately they drop into the Quaker vernacular. After the debate Palmer went to the former speaker, who is thirty-six years older than himself.

"Uncle Joe," he said, "these treated me a little roughly in the debate today."

"Well," replied Uncle Joe, in a mixture of Quaker and Cannonian English, "perhaps I did treat thee a little severely, but blunkety-blunk, thou deservedst every damned thing I said."

Sacking the Animals.

Spader Johnson, one of the principal clowns with the Ringling circus, was spinning yarns in the padroom and told this:

A rube visitor to the city had spent all of the morning reading circus bills and was just going to his hotel when he saw a red painted United States mail wagon going down the street. He sized it up for a circus wagon and followed it four miles to the postoffice and with wide open mouth watched the unloading of the mail.

Late in the afternoon he met another rube and remarked: "Adner, I followed one of them circus wagons all the way downtown, an' when they unloaded they took the varnits out in sacks."—Chicago Post.

DENTIST WAS JOLLY SOUL

But He Had Been Celebrating, as Patient Found Out to His Sorrow.

Otis Harlan, the actor, has been going along with one hip looking like an old rubber overshoe, says the New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Times Star. It appears that for some time he had been intermittently bothered by an ache in one of his most "valuable" teeth. "It's an odd, aching, throbbing ache," he said, "that thing, though, says Harlan, 'that ache used to disappear absolutely every time I walked up the steps of a dentist's office. It would really go old joke here. The dentist would pin back my shoe and get his right arm to the elbow inside my mouth, and grub around there with a discouraging air. Always he would emerge declaring that he could not find anything wrong with any of my teeth, and advise me to return the next time it worried me.'"

That happened several times. At last the tooth got to aching for fair. Harlan waited until his face began to swell slightly—enough so he could mark the spot with a cross and be certain of finding it afterward. Then he went into the nearest dentist's office. The dentist was a jolly soul—a very jolly soul. After Mr. Harlan sat down he became convinced that the dentist had probably been celebrating some little thing. He could isolate the accent of curacao and sauterne and the clover cocktail upon the dentist's breath. Then he had been eating cabbage, too. Harlan told him to hurry. The dentist fastened his forceps on the aching tooth.

"Uh," groaned Harlan. "Hoo! Uh, uh, uh! You've got hold of my hip."

"Thash all right, Mr. Harlan," said the dentist, smiling, vaguely. "Thash all right. Don't you let that worry you, Mr. Harlan. I got hold of the tooth, too."

Classical Music. "What is your idea of classical music?" "Well," replied Mr. Cumrox, "I don't profess to know much about it. But it always seems to me that when a man writes classical music he simply takes a tune and sees how much he can muss it up."
